The role of the Chair | Institute of Directors | IoD

The chairperson is the presiding officer of an organized group such as a board, committee, or deliberative assembly. The person holding the office, who is typically elected or appointed by members of the group, presides over meetings of the group, and conducts the group's business in an orderly fashion. In some organizations, the chairperson is also known as president. In others, where a board appoints a president, the two terms are used for distinctly different positions.

Chairperson - Wikipedia

The chairman (or chairperson) of the board is the member who leads discussions and serves as the individual in charge of board meetings. In most cases, the chairman is still considered a voting member of the board of directors, though some companies do restrict the chairman's ability to vote unless a board vote has ended in a tie.
