When dreams die, as they sometimes do, when the plans you 've made and when the things you 've built just seem to fade, do not leave, it is not the end. When hopes disappear, as they sometimes do, when everything you 've prayed for and every seed you 've sown, just seem to wither away, do not quit, you can try again. For those dreams that died,

"Fade" continues the story begun in "Wake" and if you try reading this one first, you're likely to be a little confused. In "Wake," we met Janie, a girl with the ability to be a dream-catcher. This means she can enter other people's dreams. "Wake" was about Janie coming to terms with her new power.
