"That's what elegance is made of." Sounds familiar, doesn't it?

Elegance is misconstrued badly.

Nowadays, we live in a world where no class is lauded and elegance is measured by the price tag of your clothes. But if you look at the most elegant women in

Get Free How To Look

history, like Katharine Hepburn, Lauren Bacall and Princess Diana, none of them needed expensive clothes to be elegant. Their elegance was like an inner super power that was enhanced by their ability to dress elegantly. Their elegance started from their acts and behavior. That's where your elegance starts from too,

Get Free How To Look

and that's something you need to master first.
After you have mastered your elegant mindset, you need to learn to dress properly. That's how you'll make yourself look elegant.
You don't want your style to look cheap or overdone. You want your style to look just perfect, like Princess Diana's. You also want it to be practical and enjoyable. You want it to enhance your grace and charm so everyone will see you as a classy elegant lady. That's what the real elegance is made of. That's how you will become elegant. Oh, there's one little thing left. You don't need to be rich in order to be elegant. If you know what you're doing,

Get Free How To Look

there's no need to wear expensive jewelry and designer clothes. If you asked the most elegant women in history whether they needed to be rich to become elegant, each and every one of them would answer no. The same applies to you.
