In IM HERE TO WIN, Chris "Macca" McCormack opens his playbook and reveals everything it takes-mind, body, and spirit-to become a champion. Now he shares the story of his triumphs and the never-say-die dedication that has made him the world's most successful triathlete. In 2010, at the age of 37, Macca beat the odds and won the Ford Ironman World Championship in Kona, Hawaii for a second time in what many called the most dramatic finish in the race's history. Macca's journey to athletic greatness is more than just one of physical perseverance. After coming in fourth in Hawaii in 2009, Macca returned to the island on a mission: He was there to win. A game plan containing a new strategic approach to winning brought him first across the finish line. Chris McCormack has dedicated his life to training for-and winning-the Ironman Hawaii, one of the most grueling tests of mental and physical endurance in the world. The race challenges athletes to swim 2.4 miles, bike 112 miles, and run a full marathon, 26.2 miles, using all their strength and willpower to overcome the incredibly harsh conditions. In IM HERE TO WIN Macca provides concrete training advice for everyone-from weekend warriors who casually compete to seasoned veterans who race every week to armchair athletes looking for an extra push-and provides insight into the mind of a great champion with excitement and inspiration on every page. IM HERE TO WIN is also available as an enhanced e-book with embedded video and audio.

The perfect keepsake, this front cover is customizable in the title box (YOUR loved one's name, in YOUR writing, is a thing they will cherish!), and there are lined pages for your own thoughts and dedications inside. The book is illustrated completely by children, and the simple, sweet text demonstrates how LOVE exists, even when you're not together. Written for children, but wonderful as a love letter for all ages, for all times of year. IM SO GLAD YOU'RE HERE is a celebration of love and gratitude.

Warning: Don't read if your heart is weak! A vigilante uses an ingenious new method to end homelessness in a coveted beach city. The mission focuses not on the homeless, but on those who are unsympathetic to their plight. Carefully-targeted fear cues public apathy toward the impoverished. The city's terrified citizens flaunt the Golden Rule in a desperate attempt to avoid the vigilante's wrath.

When Edy Phelps falls hard for her best friend, she knows nothing can come from it. Forget actual chemistry, or the fact that she cherishes his mother more than her own; centuries of tradition say that Hassan Pradhan will grow up, marry the girl his parents select, and think nothing of his best friend: the dancer with the bursting smile. Except he can't. He won't. In a world erupting with possibilities for the boy with a body of steel and dreams of the NFL, everything seems promised while nothing at all is; when he's denied the girl he wants most. Two hearts. Two families devoted through generations of friendship. Could Edy and Hassan really risk all that? And yet ... how could they not?

Thornton, flaccid from hot days in the laboratory, welcomed any proffered excuse for a loaf. So they jogged away in the soft evening, from the cropped green hedges and the red brick buildings of Camberton into the country turnpike, smoking and keeping a peaceful silence. After athletics and carts had been talked out there was not much to start fresh conversation with. Camberton slipped away, with its endless problems, its ambitious prods. Jarvis Thornton entered another atmosphere when the cart crunched the gravel of the drive at the Four Corners. The Ellwells were on the veranda. "Who are the Ellwells?" Thornton asked himself as he found a chair next the white dress of the daughter. "And why did I get myself into a family party for a day and two nights without knowing what to expect?"

FUN FACT: "Becoming Zara" is a standalone novella, but if you're following the character of Samantha Bradford as she crosses off the items of her bucket list (the Single Wide Female Series), this is the book that Samantha publishes to complete her bucket list item #18 (Publish a Book). Note: You can download #1 Learn Pole Dancing of that series for free. "" Hi, I'm Zara...warrior princess. I don't usually tell that last bit to strangers, but I say it in my head all the time. It's one of the many mantras that have helped me to get to where I am today. And believe me when I say that I've come a long way. Besides, if you're a woman and you happen to have ever struggled with issues of self-esteem, we're probably gonna be fast friends anyway, so I won't hold anything (much) back. Oh, and Zara wasn't the name I was born with-but you'll find out more about that in the book. I don't know about you, but my own struggle with my weight has held me back a bit in life. And my self-esteem took a real nose dive after my fiance dumped me-via text, no less. (I know, right? Jerk!...but I don't usually dwell on things in the past, so let's just move right along from that, shall we?) So, I'm still a work-in-progress for sure, but I'm really starting to figure it all out-how to be more of who I'm meant to be every day-including the bumps, the lumps, and my bruised ego along the way. Oh and I love my sisterhood (more about that later) - the women who join me in believing that we are all capable of being strong, amazing, warrior princesses-just the way we are right now."

Cold Gather begins as notorious, self-destructive glassblower Neil Bishop is diagnosed with a malignant, inoperable tumor. Told he has less than six months to live, he turns to his old friend, Jack Scanlon, to organize a Pre-Wake Party in their hometown to say good-bye to his friends. At the party, Jack gets his first real look at Neil's live-in lover of four years, Marla Stone. Neil has often vividly described Marla's fiendish temper and consuming libido. Jack is instantly pole-axed by her poise, her smoky beauty and her sensuality, generating this inebriated exchange at the end of the day: "I turned to my dear friend, this man with whom I had howled at the moon and raised so much hell across the years and said, 'Of course you realize that, as soon as you're cold, I'm coming after Marla.' He squeezed my shoulder, smiled broadly and said, 'You should do that. She'd be good for you.' He had never been more wrong, but sometimes we hear only what we want. I could not ignore an imprimatur like this. 'Neil is dead within three months of the party.'It had been rumored over many years, (although no one had seen them), that Neil had finally completed his masterwork: seven large works of molded glass he called "The Deadly Sins." In 1994, he had given the first piece, "Lust", to Jack for safekeeping. The existence and whereabouts of the other six pieces were unknown until Jack's first trip to visit Marla in California. As an intensely passionate relationship unfolds between Marla and Jack, she finally takes him to see five mind-blowing pieces; Envy, Gluttony, Anger, Pride and Sloth-- bequeathed to her by Neil.Beautifully written, Tom Buechler's muscular first novel revolves around the tempestuous, often explosive, relationship between Jack and Marla as they fall in and out of love during their search for the missing Seventh Sin--Greed.In Cold Gather, Buechler showcases his trademark earthy dialogue and his unique gift for creating offbeat characters. He has crafted a robust story that is smart, bold and darkly funny with a satisfyingly twisted finale.
