Top 10 Facts About Living Conditions in the Philippines. The Philippines is a country that is home to over 100 million people, all of which reside in more than 7,017 country's islands. As of late 2015, it was estimated that 21.6 percent of the population in the Philippines lives in poverty.

~~Top 10 Facts About Living Conditions in the Philippines~~

The Philippines has some of the lowest costs of living in the world. Above all else I'd say that's why the majority of people choose to retire here. The general rule is you need between $500-$1500 in the rural areas and $800-$2000 a month in the cities to live a western lifestyle that you're used to back home.

~~The Real Pros & Cons of Living in The Philippines - Expats ...~~

According to Movehub, the Philippines is one of the cheapest countries in the world. Many tourists/expats come to the Philippines and live on a cheap shoestring budget. It's a haven for retirees and senior citizens who retired from their jobs and live on a limited, fixed income. You're able to retire like a King instead of barely scratch by.

Don't deny yourself any longer, get this book and make your plan to visit the Philippines soon!

US Air Force Second Lieutenant Sean Mitchell catches a military cargo aircraft to Clark Air Base for a bit of adventure-something to break up the daily routine back at his duty station in Denver Colorado. His "adventure" turns into a life-and-death escape mission as he unwittingly finds himself an accessory to a large-scale criminal racket. When he befriends a street kid named Billy Bong, Mitchell's world changes forever. He admires the young enterprising lad and wants to promote his street-side business. But, his association with Billy Bong leads Mitchell right into the crushing jaws of some powerful Angeles City criminal strongmen. Mitchell's actions are noble, but nave. He's out of his league on the rough and tumble streets of Angles City. Mitchell finds himself outnumbered and on the run. Will he be able to make it out of the Philippines, or is his nightmare just beginning? Dreams of the Philippines is based on the true adventures of author Dave Ives. Through his writing, the memory of Clark Air Base and Angeles City in 1989 comes alive.

This collection of stories and poems have been gathered over many years, being tucked away in journals. Some stories are based on actual events — others, from observing God's creation or influence in the daily lives of people. One story is from Liberia, West Africa, where Cedergren and her family lived and served as missionaries. Several of the stories and poems were written during their missionary days in the Philippines. The story about scarecrows came to be written as a result of Cedergren observing them day after day in the community gardens here in our town. Betty is thankful for the guidance of the Holy Spirit in everything written here. To God, be the glory!
