An Overview for Those Interested In the Insurance Industry. A.M. Best Company publishes Understanding the Insurance Industry to provide an explanation of how the insurance industry operates, generates revenue and provides opportunities for people of a wide range of talents and interests. It's designed to provide readers with an overview of the insurance industry, particularly how it operates in the United States. It's also designed to be an easy-to-follow introduction to the insurance industry for students, new employees, prospects and those who would like to learn more about one of the world's most interesting and important financial service industries. We've designed this book in six sections: the overview, property/casualty sector (also known as nonlife insurance), life, health, reinsurance and alternative risk transfer, and the function of A.M. Best in the industry.

By the eve of the Great Depression, there existed in America the equivalent of a policy for every man, woman and child, and in Britain it grew from its narrow aristocratic base to cover all social classes. This primary resource collection is the first comparative history of British and American life insurance industries.

Examines the operations of the credit insurance industry; its common practices and its competitive effects upon lenders, the economy and the consumer.

A critical investigation of international insurance fraud.

This paper focuses on risk transfer and discusses the insurance sector, particularly life insurers. It expands on issues raised in previous Global Financial Stability Reports by asking whether financial stability has benefited or could benefit from insurers' broader participation in credit markets, including credit derivatives. The paper assesses the impact on financial stability of life insurers' investment behavior and risk management in the largest mature markets. It highlights that the policy implications differ from market to market, and may offer useful lessons to emerging market countries with developing capital markets.
